Some words of thanks to:

Life.
Darti: “Amor da minha vida”
Daniel and Thomas who make everything worthwhile!
My parents for being patient with me.
Everyone who ever advised me, taught me or demonstrated the right way to me (even at times when I was blind for it.....).
Friends who waited for me while I was pursuing a small virus…
All my colleagues of the Neonatology Department of the Academic Medical Center of Amsterdam for the opportunities provided.
All my colleagues of the Neonatology; Obstetrics and Microbiology Departments of the Leiden University Hospital, Leiden for their contributions to this thesis.

And last but not least, every patient and parent I have encountered in my career as a doctor who taught me the true value of my profession.

Thanks!
