BIBLIOGRAPHY

A

B

Basch K and Iezzi I, Summary of Repossession Procedure in Brazil, a paper presented to the American Bar Association Air and Space Law Forum annual meeting in Seattle, Washington on 11 October 2010

Bunker D H, Canadian Aviation Finance Legislation, McGill University, Montréal, 1989

C

Clark T (editor), Leasing Finance, Euromoney, 1985
Condon & Forsyth, Attempts by plaintiffs to defeat forum non conveniens motions by alleging aircraft owner or lessor liability, Newsletter, Winter 2008

D

E

F

G

H

Ho A, Does the Montreal Convention 199 provide an exclusive remedy in the international carriage of good and passengers, Annals of Air and Space Law, Volume XXXIV, 2009

I

International Civil Aviation Organization, Annex 8 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation: Airworthiness of Aircraft, 10th edition, 2005

International Civil Aviation Organization, Study on Aircraft Leasing, Air Transport Committee, 156th Session of the Council, ICAO, 1999

K

L

Mendelsohn A I, Foreign Plaintiffs, Forum Non Conveniens and the 1999 Montreal Convention, paper presented to the IATA Legal Symposium held in February 2011 at Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Sector Understanding on Export Credits for Civil Aircraft – Final Text, 20 December 2010

T

The Cape Town Convention after Three Years: participatory seminar on advanced contract, registration and transaction practices held at Freshfields, London on 18 March 2009

Thomson K, Waving goodbye to your rights, Banking Update, Linklaters, 14 June 2009

U

V

Weigand T A, Exclusivity, and Passenger Disturbances under the Warsaw Convention, Weigand Published, 3/30/01

Wickersham D K, When should courts pierce the veil protecting aircraft financiers, University of California, Los Angeles, May 2007, at [http://works.bepress.com/david_wickersham/1 on 16 May 2011](http://works.bepress.com/david_wickersham/1 on 16 May 2011)

Y