Acknowledgements

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to all people who have supported, helped and encouraged me during my PhD.

First of all, I am deeply grateful to all the participants and collaborators without whom it wouldn’t be possible to complete this research project. Additional gratitude and appreciation to older persons who voluntarily participated in the study. Moreover, I would like to thank Adriana Poelstra for allowing to use her beautiful painting for a cover of my thesis.

I would like to offer my sincere thanks to my supervisors. First, to Rudi Westendorp, for his motivation, inspiration, thoughtful guidance, support, and belief in my abilities; to Jolanda Lindenberg, for sharing her knowledge, her patience, valuable advice, constant encouragement, critical comments; to Simon Biggs, for his fruitful and constructive feedback.

I would also like to thank all my colleagues from the Leyden Academy. It was a pleasure to be a part of this nice and understanding family. It gave me the opportunity to grow both as a person and professional. Frouke, Herbert, Thomas, thank you for those interesting and exciting discussions and conversations, and creative criticism. It was a lot of fun to share a room with you. Additional thanks to Frouke, you were not only a great colleague but also a good and supportive friend. Thomas, thank you for your warm encouragement and inspiration. Our discussions were of great help. Herbert, you knew how to cheer me up, after your words I felt calm and confident.

David, thank you for your supportive attitude and optimism. Ineke, it would be really difficult to make this accomplishment without your continuous help and support, I am sincerely grateful for that. Jacqueline, your understanding and kindness were invariably present. Yvonne, thanks for your warmth and smiles. Ellen, thank you for your care. Lex, you could always find time for me, thank you so much for your patience, help, advice and tips. Marieke, I enjoyed our readings. They brought me confidence to speak Dutch freely. Frans, you were always able to find nice and encouraging words. Dear colleagues, I have learnt a lot from all of you.

My greatest thanks go to my family and friends. My dear parents, I am deeply grateful for your encouragement, enormous support and belief in me. You always helped me and understood my feelings, fears and worries. Thanks to you I could become a person I am now. Volodya, my wonderful brother, thank you for your understanding, great talks and patience. Thanks for being there for me whenever I needed you. I felt your support every day. You were not only my brother but also the dearest friend. I would also like to express my gratitude to my granny. You have constantly provided warmth and wisdom. My appreciation goes to my godmother for her kindness and empathy.

My dear friends, your support was always with me. With you I shared unforgettable moments, ideas and thoughts, my happiness and sadness. Thank you very much for your friendship.

Marta and Giuseppe, I would like to thank you for being me a family all these years, for all the nice dinners, for your thoughtful advice, care and understanding.
Tanara, you were always open and ready to support and listen to me. Thank you for being such an amazing, sincere and caring friend. Sue, thank you for lively talks and discussions that we shared, they were so precious. Your understanding, empathy and empowerment were consistently present. Anuar, it was always a great fun to spend time with you, I truly appreciate joyful moments we shared. Lisette, we know each other for a long time, you were always sensual and compassionate friend. Daniela and Fran, I am deeply grateful for your friendship, support, and tenderness. Sasha, with you I could talk about so many things and felt understood and heard. Yolanda, thank you for sharing with me beautiful cultural experiences. Anne, thanks for listening to my stories and finding exactly the right words. Maryam, thank you for your warm words, you made me feel special. Xavier, thank you for your help and encouragement.

Many thanks to my Dutch teacher, Adrienne, I am grateful for the Dutch lessons that were a great help in my professional and daily life.

I would like to thank the supervisor of my master thesis from Ukraine. Nadiya Kabachenko, you inspired me to go to the Netherlands and follow my dreams. During all these years I remembered this.
